</tr>
<tr>
<td>2</td>
<td>My bicycle is really fast.</td>
<td>The adverb really describes the adjective fast.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3</td>
<td>My teacher speaks very quickly.</td>

B. Adverbs of Frequency

Adverbs of frequency (also known as frequency adverbs or adverbs of time) answer the question how often.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Frequency</th>
<th>Adverb</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>100%</td>
<td>always</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>95%</td>
<td>almost always</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>80%</td>
<td>usually, often, frequently</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>50%</td>
<td>sometimes, occasionally</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>20%</td>
<td>not very often, seldom</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>10%</td>
<td>rarely</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5%</td>
<td>almost never</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>0%</td>
<td>never</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Examples:

- He goes shopping. How often does he go shopping? He sometimes goes shopping.
- My sister eats breakfast. How often does she eat breakfast? She usually eats breakfast.

C. Patterns

Adverbs of frequency have two common sentence patterns in English.

1. Adv + V

Adverbs of frequency are usually placed before the verb they describe.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>#</th>
<th>Example</th>
<th>Explanation</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1</td>
<td>She never studies.</td>
<td>Never describes how often she studies.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2</td>
<td>My friend usually plays baseball with us.</td>
<td>Usually describes how often my friend plays baseball.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3</td>
<td>I always watch TV before bed.</td>
<td>Always describes how often I watch TV before bed.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

2. BE + Adv

With the verb to be (is, am, are), adverbs of frequency come after the Be verb. The adverb usually describes an adjective.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>#</th>
<th>Example</th>
<th>Explanation</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1</td>
<td>My brother is always hungry.</td>
<td>Always describes how often he is hungry.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2</td>
<td>You are almost never late.</td>
<td>Almost never describes how often you are late.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3</td>
<td>Her children are often tired.</td>
<td>Often describes how often her children are tired.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
D. Take Note!

1. We can move sometimes, often, and usually around in a sentence.

   These examples are all correct and have the same meaning:

   - Sometimes he is late.
   - He is sometimes late.
   - He is late sometimes.

2. Be careful! Not very often has a different sentence pattern:

   do/does + not + V + O + very often

   - She doesn’t go to parties very often.

3. Frequently, occasionally, and seldom are formal words that aren’t common. Use often/usually, sometimes, and not very often instead.

   - We frequently visit our grandparents. (formal)
   - We often/usually visit our grandparents. (more common)
   - She occasionally cleans her room. (formal)
   - She sometimes cleans her room. (more common)
   - They seldom drink coffee. (formal)
   - They don’t drink coffee very often. (more common)
2 Fill in the Blanks

Class Survey

Walk around your class and ask your classmates the questions below.

Try to talk to as many of your classmates as you can. You only need to write the adverb of frequency, but use complete sentences when you are speaking.

Example

Robyn: Tara, how often do you do your homework?

Tara: I always do my homework.

Robyn writes Tara’s name and the adverb of frequency “always” in the chart.

B How Often?

Optional activity. Cut up the premade question cards (Part 1) and/or have students make their own using the blank cards (Part 2). Cards can be used for a variety of activities. One suggestion is to put students in groups and have students take turns choosing a question card and answering using an adverb of frequency in a complete sentence. If a student answers correctly, he or she gets a point. The student with the most points wins.

Spelling Notes:

This lesson shows the American spelling of the words Neighbor, Color, Jewelry, and Practice. Most other English-speaking countries spell these words this way: Neighbour, Colour, Jewellery, and and Practise (when used as a verb; Practice when used as a noun). Make it a challenge for your students to find these words in the lesson and see if they know the alternate spellings.
