

Elm Park

Elm Park is in between four streets.

In between Park Avenue and Elm Street and Highland Street and Russell Street.

Elm Park is the oldest park in America.

You can go there any day of the week.

Elm Park has a playground for children.

The children run and jump and they swing and slide.

Elm Park has swings and slides and monkey bars.

The children play there every day of the week.

Elm Park has a pond for the ducks.

In winter the pond freezes to ice.

Elm Park has skating in winter.

You can skate there when the ice is safe.

Elm Park has benches for sitting.

Or you can bring your own chairs.

At Elm Park the men meet to play cards.

They meet every day of the week.

Elm Park has sidewalks and paths.

People go for a walk or a run.

At Elm Park the people are friendly.

I go there every day of the week.
