

Joe Rested All Morning

Joe rested all morning.

He folded his laundry at noon.

He sprinted to the mailbox just before three.

He planted some seeds in the cool of the evening.

He grunted quite loud when he stood back up.

Elvie called her best friend on Friday.

She drilled four new holes in the kitchen wall on Saturday.

She spilled her coffee in the morning on Sunday.

She spelled her name for her neighbor on Monday.

She thrilled her father with a visit on Tuesday.

Todd talked to his wife for hours and hours.

He crossed the street in the early morning.

He jumped up and over the fence.

He tossed a football with his son.

He kissed the kids good night at ten.
