

Look at the Flags

Look at the flags.

Look at all the flags today.

There are flags in the city and flags in the town.

On every street corner there are flags flying around.

Today is the last Monday in the month of May.

A day to remember and a day to pray.

It is the day we call Memorial Day.

We remember all those who have gone before us.

We are thankful for the sacrifices that so many made.

And we do not let our memory fade.

We call our country the home of the brave.

We call our country the land of the free.

Because that is the way that we want to be.

There are flags in the city and flags in the town.

On every street corner there are flags flying around.

Today is the last Monday in the month of May.

A day to remember and a day to pray.

It is the day we call Memorial Day.
