

How Old Is Worcester?

How old is Worcester?

How old is our city?

Worcester is three hundred years old.

Worcester will turn three hundred in June of 2022.

The first people to live in the area were the Nipmuc.

The Nipmuc were a Native American tribe.

They called this area Quinsigamond.

In June of 1722 settlers from England established the town of Worcester.

They named the town Worcester, after Worcester, England.

Worcester became a city in 1848.

How old is Worcester?

How old is our city?

Worcester is three hundred years old.

Worcester has many colleges.

Worcester has many three-deckers.

The smiley face was created in Worcester.

Worcester is the second largest city in New England.

People from all over the world live in Worcester.

Worcester will turn three hundred in June of 2022.

