Tax Preparation – Checklist

What do I need to file my taxes?

The documents you need for tax prep depend on your situation. To help you prepare for your tax appointment or for filing your own taxes, we've created a checklist to help you know what forms to bring.

Personal Information

Tax Identification Numbers are mandatory items on your checklist. All taxpayers will need the following to do their taxes.

- Your social security number or tax ID number
- Your spouse's full name, social security number or tax ID number, and date of birth
- Identity Protection PIN, if one has been issued to you, your spouse, or your dependent by the IRS
- Routing and account numbers to receive your refund by direct deposit or pay your balance due if you choose
- Foreign reporting and residency information - if applicable

Dependent(s) Information

Parents and caregivers should gather this information as they review what they need to file their taxes.

- Dates of birth and social security numbers or tax ID numbers
- Childcare records (including the provider's tax ID number) if applicable
- Income of dependents and of other adults in your home
- Form 8332 showing that the child's custodial parent is releasing their right to claim a child to you, the noncustodial parent (if applicable)

Sources of Income

Many of these forms won't be needed to file taxes every year. For example, you will only receive the investment forms you may need to file your taxes if you had distributions or other activity.

Employed

- Forms W-2

Unemployed

- Unemployment (1099-G)

Self-Employed

- Forms 1099, Schedules K-1, income records to verify amounts not reported on 1099-MISC or 1099-NEC
- Records of all expenses — check registers or credit card statements, and receipts
- Business-use asset information (cost, date placed in service, etc.) for depreciation
- Office in home information, if applicable
- Record of estimated tax payments made (Form 1040-ES)

Income and payroll taxes: understanding pay stubs

Directions

Knowing the difference between gross and net pay is the key to understanding your pay stub.

- ▶ Gross pay is the money you earned before paying taxes and other deductions.
- ▶ Net pay, also known as take-home pay, is the money you're left with after deductions are taken out.

Income and payroll taxes: understanding pay stubs

Look at Carmen's pay stub. Carmen lives in a state without state income tax.

QUANTIFIER WORDS

Quantifiers – Some & Any

Grammar Practice Worksheets

💡 Low Int – Int 🎓 Teens & Adults

This lesson focuses on the quantifiers some and any. Through a variety of exercises, students will learn when to use these two common quantifiers.

QUANTIFIER WORDS

A quantifier is a word that comes before a noun (a person, place, or thing).

It shows the quantity (amount) of that noun.

In the chart, note that the percentages are only approximate numbers to help you understand the general amounts of each quantifier. Quantifiers have no specific amounts attached to them.

Amount	Quantifier
100%	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• all• every
95%	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• almost all• almost every
90%	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• most
80%	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• many• much• a lot of• lots of
50%	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• some
30%	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• several
20%	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• a few• few• a little• little
10%	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• a couple
5%	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• almost no
0%	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• no

SOME AND ANY

RULES

Quantifier	Some	Any
Meaning	Think of some as an indefinite number that is about 50% (about half of an amount of a noun). It's not too much and not too little.	The amount associated with any depends on the context. In negative sentences, any usually means none of the noun. In questions, any means some, many, or all of the noun.
When to Use	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> in affirmative (positive) sentences before plural count nouns before non-count nouns Note: There might be an adjective or adverb + adjective phrase between some and the noun, but there is never another article such as a or the.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> in negative sentences in questions before plural count nouns before non-count nouns
Examples	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> She borrowed some books from the library. Let's watch some old movies this weekend. We made some rice for dinner. The children want some attention. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> He doesn't have any free time. They don't want any pizza. Do you have any pets? Does she require any assistance?
Exceptions	Some can be used in certain types of questions. It is commonly used in questions that are offers or requests. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Do you want some more coffee? (offer) Can I get some more fries? (request) Some has many functions in English. Don't get confused by the use of some as a pronoun, as in the example below. If some is not followed by a noun, it is acting as a pronoun and not a quantifier. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> You don't need to stop for milk on your way home. I already bought some. 	Any can be used in affirmative sentences to emphasize there is no specific noun in the speaker's mind. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> I need a pen. Any pen will do. (I don't care which pen it is.) Any also has many functions in English. Don't get confused by the use of any as a pronoun, as in the example below. If any is not followed by a noun, it is acting as a pronoun and not a quantifier. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Can you stop for milk on your way home? I didn't have time, so I didn't buy any.
